

EXECUTION COMMITTEE
MINUTES NUMBER 52-2023

Session 52-2023 held in the Bank of Guatemala building, located at séptima avenida veintidós guion cero uno, zona uno of this city, on November 7, 2023, at 1:00 p.m.

The Coordinator, with the corresponding quorum, submitted the draft of the order of the day for the consideration of the Execution Committee.

FIRST: Inflation report to October 2023.

SECOND: Other matters and reports.

Not having observations, the Committee approved the order of the day.

FIRST: Inflation report to October 2023.

The Coordinator requested the corresponding information be provided.

One of the deputy directors of the Macroeconomic Analysis and Forecasting Department, based on the information received by the National Institute of Statistics [INE, for its acronym in Spanish], reported on the behavior of the Consumer Price Index (CPI) in October 2023, which registered an inter-monthly variation of 1.27%, which resulted in the inflation rate going from 4.69% in September 2023, to 4.98% in October 2023. Concerning the core inflation, it registered a rate of 4.12%, in October 2023, which is lower than the one observed in the previous month (4.17%).

SECOND: Other matters and reports.

Not having other matters or reports to discuss, the session concluded at 1:30 p.m., in the same place and date set forth, and the attendees signed in agreement.